Twin Rivers Quilters Guild Business Meeting Minutes 0CT0BER 8, 2026

President Fran Rice called the meeting to order at 10:00 am with a greeting and pleasantries.

A motion was made to accept the September business meeting minutes by Mary Daugherty, seconded by Lilly Lucier, and passed unanimously.

◊ Budget discussions continue and a proposed budget will be presented to the membership in January.

◊ Julia Burke won the trivia prize by knowing that gunboat quilts were made to raise money for the purchase of canoes during the civil war. Sixteen of twenty-eight members who played knew the correct answer.

Vice President Upcoming events are:

◊ Sue Kleeman will present a binding workshop on January 28.

◊ The planning committee has been very busy and will make signups available for upcoming events.

◊ The Greenville Quilters Guild has invited us to their Day of Sharing on November 14. There will be a show and tell, and a placemat challenge to be donated to their local Meals on Wheels program. Registration is on-line only. See the newsletter for details.

◊ The Blocks with Buddies quilts will be revealed at the November meeting.
