

Twin Rivers Quilters Guild Business Meeting Minutes June 12, 2025 50 members present

President Fran Rice called the meeting to order at 10:00 am with a greeting and pleasantries.

A motion was made to accept the May business meeting minutes by Kay Amend, seconded by Evelyn Bernhardt, and passed unanimously.

◇ There is no July meeting.

◇ Susan Faith won the trivia prize by correctly identifying the purpose of the groove in a sewing machine needle; guiding the thread close to the needle as it goes into the fabric.

Vice President Upcoming events are:

◇ There are still six tables for the Day of Sharing that have not been claimed.

◇ Discussions are in progress to evaluate the possibility of a bus trip to the AQS quilt show in Lancaster PA.

◇ The Carolina Pine Needles Quilters Guild in Jacksonville has invited us to their Day of Sharing on September 20. See the newsletter for details.

Treasurer Evelyn Bernhardt delivered the May financial summaries.

Birthdays There are 8 birthdays in June. The gift bag winner was Susan Cargnino.

There are 14 birthdays in July. Gift bag winners are Chris Gillespie and Lily Lucier.

Committee Reports

Block of the Month: Lily Lucier The winner of the nine July hummingbird blocks was Rolayne Schwendy. The August block is a 'star in a churn dash' block to be made in red, white, and blue. The white fabric is provided.

Community Service: Mary Quay Next week we will make pillowcases in Christmas fabric, please bring one yard of Christmas fabric.

Newsletter: Paula Gramley requests newsletter items by Saturday August 13 for the next newsletter.

All other committee reports will appear in the newsletter. Reports were presented at a minimum in order to allow time for our professional speaker, Pepper Cory.

Pepper Cory gave an interesting talk on four techniques in quilting. As a result of the vote following the talk, Pepper will return in September to teach a class on curved piecing.

Respectfully submitted, Christine Youngs
